

Martha Layne Collins Leadership Award Deadline: Friday, March 1, 2019

ABOUT

In 1999, the Martha Layne Collins Leadership Award was created to honor former Governor Martha Layne Collins (1983-1987) for her contributions to the Commonwealth of Kentucky and its people. This award recognizes Kentucky women of achievement who inspire and motivate others through their personal, community and professional lives. The Martha Layne Collins Leadership Award is presented at the Annual Women's Business & Leadership Conference.

CRITERIA

- Leadership • Demonstrates leadership by bringing about transformational change inside and outside her profession
- Mentoring • Fosters and participates in professional and community mentoring relationships
- Commitment to Improving Lives • Shows evidence of professional and community leadership, involvement, and life experiences that results in improving the lives of others
- Diversity • Can demonstrate her commitment to diversity inside and outside her profession
- Giving Back to the Community • Demonstrates evidence of giving back to women and/or the community

INSTRUCTIONS

Write a letter of recommendation including the following:

- Your contact information (name, title, company, email and phone)
- Nominee contact information (name, title, company, email and phone)
- Nominee bio (optional)
- Your relationship to nominee

In your letter, be sure to address how the nominee has demonstrated and fulfilled the criteria listed above!

Email letter of recommendation to carol@womenleadingky.com

Thank you. We appreciate your nomination.